Master of Music in Music Technology

The course requirements for the 2-year Master of Music degree are listed below.

Course Requirements:

Concentration in Music Technology – 33 Hours

Select three of the following: (9 credit hours)
MUSC 7530 - Digital Audio Montage (3 credit hours)
MUSC 7531 - Advanced MIDI Sequencing (3 credit hours)
MUSC 5030G or 7092 - Selected Topics in Music (Music Technology Subject) (3 credit hours)
MUSC 7533 - Sound Design and Processing (using Supercollider 3) (3 credit hours)
MUSC 7534 - Interactive Media (using Max/MSP/Jitter) (3 credit hours)

Required Courses:
MUSC 7932 - Music Technology Final Project (3 credit hours)
MUSC 6131 - Music Reference Tools and Resources (3 credit hours)
MUSC 5233G - Music in the Contemporary Period (3 credit hours) OR other music history course from the series MUSC 5230G-5236G (3 credit hours)
MUSC 5630G - Music, Technology, and Contemporary Culture (3 credit hours)

Electives: Select 12 hours from any graduate-level music course or other course approved by advisor.

All M.M. candidates are required to pass a comprehensive oral examination, covering coursework and their culminating recital or final project.