

WGST 3333

Communication and Gender

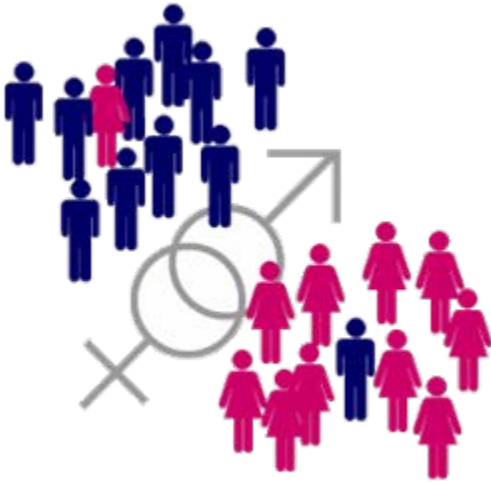

MWF 12:00 pm-12:50 pm

Comm Arts 1006

Dr. Beverly L. Graham

bgraham@GeorgiaSouthern.edu

681-0249

- The purpose of Communication and Gender is to increase awareness and to develop an understanding of both feminine and masculine communication styles.
- By developing an awareness and understanding, we can adapt and adjust our personal communication behavior to be more effective.
- Communication and Gender is both theoretical and pragmatic.
- It is theoretical in that we review academic research investigating gender communication, and it is pragmatic in that we participate in activities, discussion, etc. relating to real life experience.